"Cost-cutting is especially important as... an end to the refinance boom seems inevitable." (Bank Systems & Technology, 6/16/03)

"There's an increased unease among lenders that the bigger this refinance boom gets, the bigger the drop off will be at the end of it." (Mortgage Bankers Assoc., 6/16/03)
